Wedding & Reception: The Biltmore Ballrooms
Photography by Milanes Photography

THE COUPLE With a love story unlike any other, Jerome and Tito met through mutual friend Sheree Whitfield, star of The Real Housewives of Atlanta, at an elegant downtown soiree. After making a magical connection, the two instantly fell in love, and Tito's surprise proposal overlooking the Mediterranean Sea in Capri, Italy, inspired them to let the romantic city influence the scene at their wedding.

THE PARTY The grooms fled the ceremony hand-in-hand, leaving their guests to enjoy a stunning cocktail reception complete with lively tunes from Amp'd Entertainment and a botanical display of pink hydrangeas, spray roses and orchid blooms. Once the couple made their great return for the reception, they and their guests noshed on savory treats from Bold American Events catering in the hot pink and shimmering gold-hued space. Before they sent their friends and families off into the evening, the gentlemen handed out beautiful Champagne splits with favor tags as a small token of their thanks.

WHAT THEY LEARNED "A good wedding planner is worth their weight in gold. Our wedding planner [Michelle Gaine] was flexible and agile. She kept everything running smoothly," says Jerome.

THE HONEYMOON The pair decided to head back to Europe, where they relaxed under the palms on the coast of Gran Canaria, Spain, at the luxurious Radisson Blu Resort, Gran Canaria. —MD

Think Pink

The lavish tabletops were dressed in both floral spirals and luscious topiary displays of rose-, raspberry- and ivory-toned flowers accompanied by a flickering collection of ivory candles. The newbies could be found at the Sweetheart Table that featured the couple's monogram in gold and fresh florals.
